Summarize the story:

After the civil war, the main character Shadrach wakes up to find his brother is being arrested for murder. The story goes through the events leading up to the arrest and tells of how Shadrach attends reading lessons at a school for African Americans and how at night he and his brother Jeremiah join nightly meetings with a group known as the Ku Klux Klan. The whole time, Shadrach goes thinking they are only a group who protects widows. Shadrach begins to learn the Ku Klux Klans intentions and tries to figure out how to get out of it.

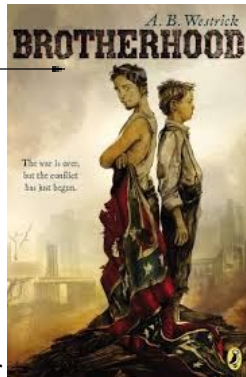

Would you recommend this book to a friend? Why or why not?

I would recommend this book to a friend (and have) because it tells a compelling story that teaches a little about what it was like back then and it also makes a point on how you should do what is right and not what the majority are doing.
