Field Trip Reflections...

Hinduism:

Prior to our visit, what was your understanding of Hinduism?
In your own words, define what it means to be Hindu.
What was the most interesting new thing you learned about Hinduism?
What information reinforced your previous knowledge about Hinduism?
What surprised you the most about Hinduism?
Identify one stereotype that you learned is untrue about Hinduism.

lel	lam	-
13	ann	•

1. l	Prior to our visit, what was your understanding of Islam?
2.	In your own words, define what it means to be a Muslim.
3.	What was the most interesting new thing you learned about Islam?
4.	What information reinforced your previous knowledge about Islam?
5.	What surprised you the most about Islam?
6.	Identify one stereotype you learned that is untrue about Muslims.

	Sikhism:
	Islam:
1.	Prior to our visit, what was your understanding of Sikhism?
2.	In your own words, define what it means to be a Sikh.
3.	What was the most interesting new thing you learned about Sikhism?
	Miles tiefs and the control of a second or a second of
4.	What information reinforced your previous knowledge about Sikhism?
5.	What surprised you the most about Sikhism?
J.	What surprised you the most about Sikhishi:
6.	Identify one stereotype you learned that is untrue about Sikhs.

Abhriruchi Restaraunt

Cuisir	ne d	evelops	in differ	ent world reg	gions dı	ue to	many fac	ctors - climate	, availability	of plant	or	animal	foods,	indigenous	herbs	and	spices,	colonialism,	availability	of refrigeration, diffusion, religion, etc.

1.	Explain	why you	believe	the dis	shes yo	u samp	oled at	Abhrir	uchi (develo	ped	in	India	or in	South As	sia.

2. A. If you've eaten Indian food at another restaurant or venue, how did today's food compare/contrast with your previous experience?

B. If you've never eaten Indian food before, describe your experience at today's lunch.

Summary/Reflection

Think about today's experiences. What impressed and/or surprised you the most? Why?

What seems similar to your experiences in the past, either in your religious practices and/or food/dietary experiences? Explain. Focus on similarities rather than differences