Russia Test – Overview PreAP Global A

Assignments to Review

Voc 15-17 Ch 15 Rdg (blue book) Video notes – Trans-Siberian Railroad Ch 14 Rdg (purple book) Cold War packet

For Practice

Use chapter assessment questions Know vocabulary from purple book

Additional Readings (optional)

"Bloody Sunday" (in Ch 14 packet on website/Google classroom)

"The Need for Progress" (in Ch 14 packet on website/Google classroom)

"What is the Command Economy?" (on website/Google classroom)

Test Structure: 31 multiple-choice questions about readings and class discussions,

2 pts. each

10 multiple-choice questions about maps, 2 pts. each

1 extended-response question about the Trans-Siberian Railroad

(see below), 8 pts.

90 points total

Extended Response Question

Trans-Siberian Railroad

The Trans-Siberian Railroad was an enormous engineering project. Consider how the railroad was built, its impact, and its legacy by answering both questions below. Be specific by giving numerous examples, and include both relevant vocabulary and definitions. Type your answers (print, share, email, post in the classroom). (8 points total)

- A. The railroad became a symbol of both the strength and weaknesses of the czars. Explain this statement, giving specific examples.
- B. What is the legacy of the railroad? (i.e., what lasting impact has it had on Russia/on the world?)