

Ms. Pittenger

Pittenger

PreAP Global B

4 April 2019

Title: "Uganda: From Revolution to Today"

Thesis: In many ways, the Ugandan Revolution promised to improve conditions imposed by European imperialists. Since the revolution, the country struggled with dictators and corruption, then a long rebellion by the Lord's Resistance Army, and continues to face both political and economic situations today.

Section 1: Revolution and Dictators

- 1962 revolution
- Obote
- Amin
- Museveni

Section 2: Joseph Kony and the LRA

- Background on the LRA
- Child Soldiers
- Where the LRA is today

Section 3: Current Problems

- border issues (ivory trafficking, plague, Rwanda)
- domestic issues (kidnapping, land disputes)

Conclusion: