Title: "Uganda: Hopeful in the 21st Century"

Thesis: The latter part of the 20th century brought major changes to Uganda—revolution, dictators, and armed rebellion among them. Even now, in the 21st century, problems with refugees and struggles with its neighbors continue. Nevertheless, as education, health care, and the economy improve, Ugandans have hope for a better future.

Section 1: Impact of the Revolution and Dictators

- 1962 revolution
- Dictators (Obote, Amin, Museveni)
- Joseph Kony and the LRA (child soldiers, Rwanda) *need to research for this section – especially child soldiers

Section 2: Current Problems

- border issues (plague, Rwanda)
- refugees

Section 3: Areas that are Improving

- education (nutrition programs, teaching Mandarin)
- health care (improving surgeries) *need one more example
